general election voter guide

Dear Fellow Arizonans,

It's no easy task to find useful information about the candidates' positions on important policy issues. To assist you – the Arizona voter – in finding credible, objective information on candidates for federal and state offices, Center for Arizona Policy publishes this nonpartisan Voter Guide. This guide gives you straightforward answers, helping you determine which candidates best represent your values.

At Center for Arizona Policy, we see how the happenings in Washington, D.C., and at the state Legislature affect the everyday lives of Arizonans. That's why we work to protect and defend the family by influencing policy, communicating truth, and empowering families. You can learn more about our work at azpolicy.org.

Please take time to share the Voter Guide with your family, friends, neighbors, and your church. Encourage everyone you know to be an informed voter, and visit azvoterguide.com to find out how you can make a difference in the 2010 elections!

Standing for Arizona families,

Cathi Herrod, Esq.
President

 - Select school board races

Is the 2010 Voter Guide Democrat or Republican?

Neither. It is factual, impartial, and nonpartisan. Every candidate in the covered races was treated equally and had the same opportunity to respond to the questions.

Who paid for the 2010 Voter Guide?

Concerned Arizonans dedicated to responsible citizenship have donated to make this publication available. No candidate or political party paid for any part of this guide.

Are you endorsing specific candidates?

No. This guide is a nonpartisan educational resource provided as a public service. No candidates are endorsed.

Why do some candidates not respond?

We don't know. All candidates were provided the same opportunity to respond to the survey questions. For candidates who declined to respond, we've provided the candidate's contact information made available by the Arizona Secretary of State.

Support the 2010 Voter Guide

This guide would not be possible without the generous support of individuals around our state. 2010 BALLOT PROPOSITIONS

A summary of the FOR and AGAINST arguments for each proposition is available at azvoterguide.com.

The full text of the propositions and arguments may be found at azsos.gov.

PROP 106	Amends the Arizona Constitution to prohibit compelling any person to participate in a health care system. Allows a person to pay directly for lawful health care services. Provides that private health insurance shall not be prohibited by law or rule.
PROP 107	Amends the Arizona Constitution to ban affirmative action programs that give preferential treatment to or discriminate against any individual or group on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, or national origin in public employment, public education, or public contracting.
PROP 109	Amends the Arizona Constitution to provide that citizens of this state have a right to lawfully hunt, fish, and harvest wildlife. Provides that lawful public hunting and fishing are the preferred means of managing and controlling wildlife.
PROP 110	Amends the Arizona Constitution to change how the state may sell or lease state trust lands (without advertising or holding an auction) in order to avoid interfering with military facilities or operations.
PROP 111	Amends the Arizona Constitution to rename the office of Secretary of State as the office of Lieutenant Governor.
PROP 112	Amends the Arizona Constitution to change the date when initiative petitions must be filed from four months to six months before the election date.
PROP 113	Amends the Arizona Constitution to guarantee the fundamental right of individuals to vote by secret ballot in an election, designation, or authorization for employee representation by a labor union.
PROP 203	Legalizes the possession and use of marijuana for any person whose doctor recommends marijuana to alleviate certain listed debilitating medical conditions or symptoms and allows dispensaries to be set up to grow and sell marijuana to qualifying patients or their caregivers.
PROP 301	Transfers the remaining balance in the Land Conservation Fund to the state general fund. (The Land Conservation Fund is used to acquire and manage state trust land.)
PROP 302	Terminates the Early Childhood Development and Health Board (known as "First Things First") and transfers the money to the state general fund to be appropriated for health and human services for children.
